By driving behavioral change, the training aimed to instill compassion, care, and dedication among the medical professionals.

BALCO hosted a Confined Space Gas Detection Training, empowering 100+ employees and business partners with essential knowledge of hazardous gas detection and confined space safety. Conducted in four batches, the training focused on essential skills to operate gas detection equipment, recognize potential risks, and implement strict safety measures across the plant. Through such trainings BALCO reinforces its commitment towards building a Zero Harm culture, prioritizing safety across all operations.
