BALCO organized a groundbreaking session to engage community decision-makers and grassroots workers in the journey toward gender sensitivity and inclusivity during Pride Month. The workshop aimed to develop a foundational understanding and promote awareness to shape a more inclusive society. The event saw significant participation, with 170 attendees engaging in thoughtful discussions. Ms. Saburi Shankar, a trailblazing transgender police constable and social activist from Chhattisgarh, led the session. She shared her inspirational journey and emphasized the importance of diversity and LGBTQ issues.
