In using AI, research shows that curiosity matters more than expertise.

Don't be hesitant. Try it.

AI Use Is Being Driven By People Who Understand It the Least, New Study Finds

- Research shows those with less AI knowledge are more drawn to AI chatbots.
- Lower AI literacy leads to assuming AI is smarter and more useful than one's own knowledge.
- Marketers should calibrate AI literacy, balancing understanding with curiosity, researchers say.

BALCO honored over 400 teachers across 13 schools in Balconagar on the occasion of Teacher's Day, appreciating their invaluable role in shaping young minds. Leaders addressed the gatherings and expressed heartfelt gratitude by presenting small tokens of appreciation. Schools covered included DPS, DAV, Minimata, Government Girls School, Parasabhata, and many more. This initiative reflected deep respect for educators who guide the future generations.
