BALCO conducted a training session for the first batch of urban Anganwadi Staff members. Themed "Eliminating Malnutrition through Dietary Diversity," the programme focused on early childhood care, nutrition awareness, hygiene, and value addition in Anganwadi meals. With an emphasis on Positive Deviance Hearth (PDH), over 130 members participated in this community-based approach to address malnutrition. The session also featured interactive activities and experience-sharing amongst participants strengthening the capabilities of frontline workers in fostering improved community health and child development outcomes.
