BALCO TODAY

BALCO Empowers Youth with its Dedicated Efforts

We are living in a time of economic nationalism around the world which is impacting the technology and resources sector. India's progress in display glass manufacturing and semiconductors, which are tomorrow's oil, would be restricted and stalled by a handful of countries which want to protect their advantage.

With the determination and vision of our Honourable Prime Minister, we have taken major steps to build our own ecosystem via progressive policies. Hundreds of companies from Japan, Korea and Taiwan want to partner and establish their shops in India.

We saw this first hand when our leadership travelled to Japan along with officials from Government of Gujarat for a roadshow. A stable government and exponentially growing demand make India a perfect destination.

This will eventually create an ecosystem with thousands of industries and lead to the creation of a better version of Silicon Valley.

I congratulate the Government of India for such forward-looking policies.
