BALCO's Wadi Plantations A Path to Prosperity

BALCO, under its flagship Mor Jal Mor Maati initiative, is empowering farmers by developing wadis that strengthen their resilience and secure their livelihoods. By transforming barren land into fertile, income-generating fields, the program fosters both sustainability and self-reliance. Intercropping provides farmers with short-term income, while mango orchards lay the foundation for long-term prosperity. With the active participation of over 30 employees, more than 250 wadis have already been developed, showcasing the power of collaboration and partnership.
