BALCO's Samvedna 4.0 is an initiative that brings together colleagues who have faced workplace challenges with resilience. Through open conversations and support from senior leaders and union representatives, the focus remains on building a safer work environment and making safety a shared responsibility. These individuals, also known as Suraksha Ambassadors are turning their experiences into valuable lessons, inspiring everyone to stay committed to safety every day.

BALCO and L&T successfully concluded the 'STOP, REFOCUS & ACT' safety campaign, reinforcing that safety is not a one-time effort but a daily commitment. The closing ceremony celebrated participants' dedication through various competitions and meaningful discussions. As we move forward, the focus remains on Zero Harm, with everyone actively working to prioritize safety every day.
