when i first started watching cricket, commentary only use to happen in english kuch samaj aa jaata aur kuch sar ke upaar se nikal jaata..but the game of cricket was so interesting hum bina audio ke bhi dekh lete the..

abhi kuch din pehle i heard cricket commentary in bhojpuri where Ravi Kishan said - ई गेंद गईल छपरा रेलवे स्टेशन के टिकट काउंटर पे..listening to this made me happy, i felt i was back home discussing the match with friends...

all our regional languages are beautiful. making cricket commentary understandable to all is worthy of applause

ab jo maaza 'garda uda diya' mein hai woh 'hits it out of the stands' mein kahan...

watching the game in bhojpuri brought me

MEDIA CORNER

Bharat Aluminium Company Ltd

BALCO embraced the spirit of International Family Day by organizing Plant visits for its employees' families where families had an incredible opportunity to witness the entire process of aluminium production, from the pot rooms to the power plants and the Finishing Line Areas. During their visit, the families were amazed to see the diverse range of aluminium products and learn about their varied applications in the prominent industries of the country. The visit concluded with a stop at BALCO Museum and Learning Centre, a repository of BALCO's rich heritage where these families had immersed themselves in the awe-inspiring legacy of BALCO, learning fascinating facts and experiencing the grandeur of its journey. The unique experience of the plant visit gave moments of joy to families as they took pride in BALCO's origins as independent India's first Public Sector Undertaking (PSU), further strengthening their connection with its illustrious legacy.
