Yes, you can find stillness, even in a world designed to distract you...

All you need is 10 minutes without your phone.

Today, I see people spending hours on social media, distracted and tired, which is the complete opposite of yoga, forcing you to be present.

You don't need fancy memberships or the perfect mat to start yoga. You can start from your bed or your floor...mat, or no mat - just start. And it's okay if you don't know all the asanas, because the first step is being honest with yourself.

So next time you have 10 free minutes, skip the scroll and sit still. Breathe in and out. 10 mins of some simple asanas or suryanamaskar...

Here's me doing Dhanurasan!

If you try it today, leave a picture in the comments and share your experience with me. Let's come together to make #10MinuteYoga a new trend. Happy yoga day!

BALCO celebrated International Yoga Day with, over 600 students from Vedanta Skill School and Nand Ghar, along with business partners. Overall, the event served as a moment of mindfulness, where participants embraced the power of yoga, focusing on inner balance, and physical strength. Highlighting the unifying spirit of yoga and its role in building healthier lives.

Happy World MUSIC DAY!

We all find ourselves musing to the tunes of artists who help us sail through different moods. So, let's turn up the volume for some incredible LGBTQIA+ artists who've made their mark with powerful numbers.

Sushant Divgikar (Rani Ko-HE-Nur) – A fabulous drag performer, singer, and LGBTQIA+ icon from India, Rani's voice is as bold as her spirit!

Listen to "Diamond" a fierce anthem that celebrates self-worth and sparkle!

Miley Cyrus – From Hannah Montana to queer ally and pansexual advocate.

The maker of "Flowers", which is a self-love anthem that resonates with independence and self-healing.

Lady Gaga – A global LGBTQIA+ icon whose music and advocacy go hand in hand.

Listen to "Born This Way", a song that is practically a Pride flag in musical form!
