Nurturing Health, Empowering Generations

BALCO, under its community development initiatives Arogya and Nand Ghar, organized a nutrition awareness program promoting healthy practices among mothers and children. The event encouraged community participation and holistic well-being through sessions on Take Home Ration and Positive Deviance Hearth (PD Hearth), along with interactive workshops for mothers. Children showcased creativity through a Fancy Dress Competition and thematic songs. Outstanding contributors were recognized in categories including Champion Mothers, Best Nand Ghar, and Best Kitchen Garden, reinforcing BALCO's commitment to building a healthier and stronger community.
