Polis, Sweets & Tears behind every bite

“Today, my heart broke when I saw an 80-year-old got pushed into hardship.

Abandoned by his own daughter who now lives in London, he has taken up selling sweets and polis on the busy trains of Chennai, to support himself and his Show more

Chairman, Vedanta Group

On the occasion of Navratri, BALCO Township witnessed the commencement of Ramleela, bringing together employees, families, and residents in a spirit of devotion and festivity. The timeless enactment of Lord Rama's journey embodies the victory of good over evil and continues to be a cherished tradition in the township. The event fosters cultural bonding, community participation, and intergenerational learning, as children and adults alike engage in the performances. With vibrant energy and collective enthusiasm, the celebrations marked a joyous beginning to the festive season.
