BALCO organized Sahbhagita, an event dedicated to celebrating success in Asset Optimization & Maintenance. The focus was on achieving success through the application of Asset Optimization principles, the adoption of optimal maintenance practices, and the use of effective problem-solving tools. The event brought together more than 150 participants from Potline, including senior leadership, business partners, and employees. A total of 78 outstanding employees and business partners were acknowledged for their exceptional performances during the event.
