BALCO, in collaboration with the District Education Department, Raigarh, has installed clean drinking water facilities in 15 government schools and hostels across Barra, benefiting over 1,500 students and teachers. Rooted in the belief that good health empowers better education, this initiative aims to create a nurturing environment where young minds can thrive. By ensuring access to safe and clean drinking water, BALCO promotes health and well-being while supporting education and contributing to a stronger, brighter future.
