It was a very special blessing for me to be in Ayodhya on January 22nd and be witness to Ram Lalla returning home.

I had a chance to meet several old friends there and make some new ones!

One of the most special was running into Jackie Shroff, our Jaggu Dada. Brought back so many memories, particularly about our days of struggle when we used to sit at Kobe restaurant near Chowpatty, sharing our dreams to achieve something in Bombay.

There were good days and bad days but we were always hopeful and positive and kept moving on. Both of us have come a long way since.

His bindaas 'Bhidu' style and Mumbaiya language is truly unique!

... Jaggu Dada's determination and perseverance inspires us, just like his famous dialogue, "तुम हमेशा जीतने वाले घोड़े पर ही पैसा लगाते हो और मैं जिस घोड़े पर पैसा लगाता हूँ उसे जीतना ही पड़ता है।"

In celebration of National Girl Child Day, BALCO took a step towards nurturing both girls and nature by planting 100 saplings of change. This initiative aimed to cultivate a future where both girls and plants can grow and prosper. 50 girls from neighbouring communities actively participated in this initiative. This collaborative effort seeks to create a harmonious environment that fosters collective flourishing, emphasizing the vital connection between nurturing the potential of girls and preserving the beauty of nature.
