आज मैं आप सबको एक खास व्यक्ति से मिलाना चाहता हूँ।

Gulab ji is an amazing woman entrepreneur from Jalsu Block of Jaipur district. She and 12 other women had an opportunity, at Nandghar, to be trained in candle making by Krishi Vigyan Kendra. Today they run a successful business from the courtyard in Gulab Ji's home making beautiful handcrafted scented candles.

Since 2018, over one lakh women, aged 18 to 55, have been skilled in various areas at Nand Ghars across 12 states. They have changed not only their own lives but of their families also. Their contribution to household income has gone up by Rs. 10,000-12,000 per month and they have a bigger say in the decision-making of their families.

नारी शक्ति को कभी underestimate नहीं करना चाहिए। महिलाओं को अगर उचित सहायता मिले तो वो दुनिया पलट सकती हैं।

... You can also help us empower more women and children across the country by joining the Nandghar movement. Visit the website anilagarwalfoundation.org. For all queries and suggestions you can write to Ritu Jhingon at nandghar@vedanta.co.in

Enthusiastic participation at BALCO

■ Our Correspondent
KORBA, Jan 29

BHARAT Aluminum Company Limited (BALCO) held a grand programme to mark celebration of India's 75th Republic Day at the BALCO stadium. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from over 5000 people who collectively displayed unity, pride, and patriotism for the nation through several engaging demonstrations and vibrant performances.

The event featured a plethora of activities with the participation of BALCO's security teams and communities, including a solemn march past. Rajesh Kumar, CEO and Director of BALCO, commenced the proceedings with the unfurling of the national flag and playing of the national anthem. He also received the Guard of Honor and acknowledged the salute of the security team during their spirited march past. Tricoloured balloons were also released into the air on the occasion, symbolizing continued peace and freedom for India. The audience witnessed an engaging demonstration from BALCO's security teams, providing a vivid glimpse of their extensive capabilities in terms of ensuring plant safety and security.

The participants were also treated to vibrant cultural performances from over 1700 students across 15 schools in BALCO's vicinity, celebrating the rich culture and diversity of the nation. These included several dance performances and cultural presentations.

In a joint celebration with its communities, BALCO presented captivating tableaux showcasing various parts of its operations, including potlines, power operations, cast houses, logistics, and CSR functions. These intricately designed floats were included in the parade, not only reflecting the diverse facets of BALCO's operations but also representing its commitment to empowering communities.

Emphasizing BALCO's dedication to the nation's progress, Kumar, stated, "At BALCO, we are committed to adding to India's industrial prowess, while also integrating environmental stewardship and equitable community development within our journey of shared growth and development. We are also greatly invested in strong relationships with our communities and partners, working together to make our nation a true global manufacturing powerhouse."

The festivities concluded with the felicitation of student toppers of Class 10th and 12th exams from the participating schools and awards for the winning parade presentations and tableaux. Special recognition was given to the members of BALCO's Dog Squad for their energetic demonstration of security protocols, highlighting its crucial role in ensuring a safe and secure environment for all.

Following the Republic Day festivities, Kumar also visited the BALCO Hospital in Korba, where he distributed nutritious fruits among several patients. His visit represented the company's deep commitment to the community and emphasized the importance of ensuring good health and overall well-being for the nation's development.
